Sex of donor invasive trophoblast cells was determined using Y chromosome PCR. Genomic DNA (gDNA) was isolated from the fetuses that matched the donor invasive trophoblast cells, or peripheral blood mononuclear cells harvested from a stallion or mare (as controls). NTC indicates no template control. See Materials and Methods for details of assay.